

Postpone the election of the new President of the European Commission

The European Movement in Italy supports strongly the proposal of the European Movement in Germany to postpone the election of the new President of the European Commission in September 2019.

This delay could facilitate a common agreement between the political majority in the Parliament and the candidate to the Presidency on the main priorities of the legislature and on the composition of the European Commission.

Pier Virgilio Dastoli

9th July 2019